These presented, a committee will be appointed to prepare a The representative of the Associated Press has learned that the instructions of Sir William Vernon Harcourt, chancellor of the exchequer, to the English delegates are that they are to treat the conference as a purely deliberative body, without power to commit the governments represented to anything.

It is learned from a high authority that the Indian currency committee is debating a motion, which is supported by three members, including Baron Herschell, the lord chancellor, who presides over the committee, to establish gold coinage in India. The proposal has no chance of approval. It is doubtful whether Baron Herschell is really in earnest in his support of the motion. earnest in his support of the motion, as he has been warned even by single standard experts that a change would convulse India politically, besides causing tremendous trade and financial panies there and in the Indian market in Great Britain.

There is reason to state that Baron Herschell rather designs to check by means of bravado a proposal to influence the bi-metallists at the

MR. CLEVELAND AT HOME.

Glimpse of the President-Elect's Inner Life. BALTIMORE, Nov. 15. - Mr. Chas. B. Jefferson, eldest son of Mr. Joseph Jefferson, the great comedian, was a visitor on Sunday at Mr. Cleveland's New York city home. He says the President-elect talks little of politics or the election to his intimate friends.

"Mr. Cleveland has been recently receiving between 300 and 400 letters a day," continued Mr. Jefferson. "He insists upon answering them all, and has been compelled to appoint a stenographer to assist him. He is a man of wonderful physical strength and enjoys perfect health. At Buzzard's Bay he used to sit up until 2 o'clock in the morning attending to his correspondence, and would then rise in time to begin fishing at 8 a. m. He usually returned from a day's fishing at 7 p. m. He is the most patient fisherman I ever saw, and is also one of the most successful and ardent. On the night Mr. Cleveland was nominated by the Chicago convention I was with him at Gray Gables and kept tally of the balloting. While we were receiving the news over the wire Mr. Cleveland sud-denly remarked: 'Why, I've forgotten to dry my fishing lines.' He then went outside and dried his lines as unconcernedly as if the convention was not in session. We had been fishing that day in Buzzard's bay.

"Next to Mrs. Cleveland and Baby Ruth, Mr.

Cleveland thinks more of his catboat for fishing than anything else on earth. The boat is very handsome and is forty feet long. Her rig-ging conforms to all the latest improvements. Miss Benedict, the daughter of Mr. E. C. Bene-dict of New York, gave the President-elect nature. He and Mrs. Cleveland are devoted to Baby Ruth, who is an unusually intelligent child for her age.

"The President-elect did not seem to bother bout getting the nomination, and when he was hunting and fishing last January at my father's tion in the expenditures in order to avoid a place, near New Iberia, La., he was pursuing deficit. In this connection it has been at the last of the l the even tenor of his way just as if he had not given a thought to the possibility of being the try for President."

REPRESENTATIVE HEMPHILL, A Rumor That He May Be Mr. Cleveland's

It is rumored here today that there is a probability of Mr. Cleveland making Congressman Mr. Henry E. Davis called to see President Hemphill of South Carolina, now chairman of Harrison at the White House today in the in-men.

Mr. Hemphill has been very active in the campaign in Mr. Cleveland's behalf, and has been one of the national committee's staunchest workers in the field.

Mr. Hemphill will be in a position to accept the appointment, as the Farmers' Alliance defeated him for renomination to Congress.

As will be remembered, Mr. Hemphill recently married a beautiful.

Within the past few days Mr. Porter, the superintendent of the census, has been surprised, not only once, but twice. THE DISTRICT JUDGESHIP. half of Mr. Cole.

An interesting campaign is in progress just now, in which several prominent lawyers and several other lawyers not so prominent are said to be deeply interested. is expected that the President will soon appoint two judges to fill the vacancies in the Supreme Court of the District caused by resignations of Justice James and Justice Montgomery. How many members of the local barare candidates is not nowapparent, but local barare candidates is not now apparent, but there are enough of them to make things quite warm in and around the city hall. No one has even the shadow of an idea as to the identity of the lucky one, but opinions seemed to be evenly divided in favor of District Attorney Cole, Commissioner Douglass and ex-Representative McComas of Maryland. Several of the attorneys said they had been asked to sign a petition favoring the candidacy of Geo. C.
Hazleton, attorney for the District, but none of them would plead guilty to the charge of affixing their autographs thereto.

IN BEHALF OF CAPT, COLE, Ex-District Attorney A. S. Worthington, Mr. Wm. F. Mattingly, Col. Enoch Totten and Hemphill of South Carolina, now chairman of the D. C. committee, a member of his cabinet. It is said in such an event Mr. Hemphill would be offered the portfolio of Secretary of the Navy.

The rumor has a basis of likelihood at least, for it is known that Mr. Cleveland entertains a district of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. The President received them in his usual affable manner, and each of the delegation spoke of the worth and qualifications of Mr. Cole and how agreeable it would be to the bar and the citizens of the District if high regard for Mr. Hemphill's ability, and, above all, for his sterling integrity. A warm personal friendship also exists between the two men.

Mr. Hemphill has been very active in the and he would give due consideration to what they had said when he came to fill the places. CAPT. DENSMORE'S FUNERAL.
